Some Resources and Training Relevant to Teaching

Diversity and Inclusion
Office of Institutional Equity
Rainbow Center
Diversity Awareness Training
International Student and Scholar Services
Women’s Center
Puerto Rican / Latin American Cultural Center (PRLACC)
Asian American Cultural Center (AsACC)
African American Cultural Center (AACC)

Campus Resources
Graduate Assistant Information
Accessibility: Center for Students with Disabilities
Student Health and Wellness – Mental Health, Counseling
Academic Honesty: procedures, community standards
Dean of Students
Office of the Registrar
The Records and Enrollment Services section of the Office of the Registrar can assist you with processing and troubleshooting course registration and grading. The Scheduling section can assist you with class and final exam scheduling and reserving classrooms for academic purposes.

Best Practices in Teaching and Classroom Management
Teaching Talks at CETL
CETL website: First day in class
CETL website: Syllabus Design
CETL website: Preparing to Teach
CETL library
The President's Series on Teaching Excellence

Additional Resources for Teaching Development
Graduate Certificate in College Instruction
CETL Consultations and Class Observations

CETL has institutional accounts for The Teaching Professor and 20-Minute Mentor Commons and the National Center for Faculty Development and Diversity, NCFDD. To obtain your subaccount for
- NCFDD: register using your UConn email address.
- The Teaching Professor and 20-Minute Mentor Commons: access UConn’s group subscription