UCONN

CENTER OF EXCELLENCE IN TEACHING AND LEARNING INVITES YOU TO A:

VIRTUAL BOOK
DISCUSSION

TUESDAYS, JULY 27 – AUGUST 24, 2021
12:00-1:00 p.m. | Via webex

Led by: Drs. Martina Rosenberg and Suzanne LaFleur

Join us to discuss alternatives to traditional grading by using Susan Blum's book "Ungrading: Why rating students undermines learning (and what to do instead)." We will unpack how grades intersect with motivation and learning and explore a variety of assessment and evaluation approaches.

All faculty, instructors, interested staff and graduate students are welcome to participate. The book club is free. However, you must either acquire the book for yourself or get online access via the UConn library. We recognize the cost of the book may be prohibitive to participation for many graduate students; therefore, two copies of the book have been put on hold in the CETL library for the purpose of this book club. In addition the first four people to sign up will receive a complementary hard copy.

Contact Martina Rosenberg @ martina.rosenberg@uconn.edu for more information

To register and receive link to join, register here